

Realistic Expectations

- At activation, our goal is sound awareness and comfort. The quality may be robotic and mechanical initially, but this will improve over time.
- Your ability to understand speech will increase significantly during the first 3-6 months.
- Performing well with your implant will improve over time.

